

One of the inherent risks of an outdoor wedding is bad weather. Although the probability of rain during your ceremony is low, back-up plans are available. If it rains or is too cold outside, the decision will be yours to move inside or not. The costs of the rainy-day backup plan(s) are charged only if it's used to the credit card you have on file.

Rainy Day Back-Up Plans:

- Backup Plan #1*: Basic Ceremony Hosted Inside Your Venue.
 - Summary:
 - Ceremony is hosted inside your venue without any changes to the existing tables, chairs, or decorations by Celebrations' staff.
 - The bridal party and/or family is welcome to adjust tables and chairs inside the venue, then put them back after the ceremony if finished.
 - Cost: $0
 - Notice: 30-minute notice required prior to the original scheduled ceremony start time.

- Backup Plan #2*: Move Your Ceremony Start Time.
 - Summary:
 - Move your outdoor ceremony start time to after dinner or later in the evening, after it stops raining.
 - The original start time for appetizers, dinner and desserts cannot be changed.
 - In the case it continues to rain all evening, another rainy-day back-up plan needs to be selected at menu price. Some restrictions may apply.
 - Potential delays should be expected depending on weather conditions, staff availability, other events, and/or conditions beyond Celebrations' control.
 - Cost: $250*
 - Notice: 1-hour notice required prior to the original scheduled ceremony start time.

- Backup Plan #3*: Ceremony Hosted Inside Your Venue.
 - A temporary altar (of your choice) is set up inside your venue with standard matching décor.
 - The most popular location is on the stage by removing the head table, then putting it back after your ceremony is finished.
 - Other options include the dance floor or any spot inside your venue.
 - Ceremony decorations rented from Celebrations are moved inside, as applicable.
 - The tables and chairs are not moved. Guests are seated at the existing indoor tables and chairs without alteration to the original floor plan.
- Cost: $400.00* In-Advance Decision | $950* Day of Wedding Decision
- Notice: 1-hour notice required prior to the original scheduled ceremony start time.

No credit(s) to the original room rental fee or decorations. Costs apply only if utilized and charged to the credit card on file. Option must be selected 14 days prior to the wedding. Sales tax not included. Some restrictions apply.*
